

TWENTY STATES HAVE CONTESTS

Complete Resume Of Political Situation On Eve Of Election.

NEW YORK RESULT STILL IN DOUBT

Conservative Democrats In Massachusetts May Cut Moran--Other Interesting Features At Close Of Campaign.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York.—Charles E. Hughes, Democratic—William R. Hearst, Independence League—William R. Hearst.

New York, Nov. 3.—The political campaign in New York closes tonight with many meetings on both sides and predictions of success by both the Hearst and Hughes managers. At least the result is purely a matter of guesswork. Supporters of Mr. Hughes, the republican candidate, are confidently claiming his election. The same confidence is shown by the followers of William R. Hearst. Betting still favors Hughes, but no much reliance is to be placed in this speculative feature of the campaign. Briefly put, the result of next Tuesday's election in this state may be said to depend upon the following questions:

How will the farmer vote?

What will Tammany do in New York county?

Will the McCarren forces bolt Hearst in Brooklyn?

Has Hearst got the labor vote as thoroughly "cinched" as his reception in the manufacturing towns seem to indicate?

How many republican labor votes will Hearst get up the state?

Has Hearst lost the support of the municipal ownership crowd?

Has his deal with Tammany Hall lost him the support of his Independence League followers?

Massachusetts.

LEADING CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

Republican—Curtis M. Guild, Jr.

Democratic—John B. Moran.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—Unbiased onlookers believe the outcome of the present campaign in Massachusetts to be more in doubt than has been the case in this state in many years. The republican governor, Curtis M. Guild, is opposed for re-election by the picturesque, district attorney John B. Moran, who is running on the triple nomination of the democrats, Independence League and Prohibitionists. The platform of Moran is a radical one, aimed chiefly against the corporations. In Gov. Guild's favor are the state's normal large republican majority and his own creditable record as governor. Moran's strength lies chiefly in his personality and his popularity with the labor element. His weakness is the opposition with which he is met by the conservatives of the democratic party, who regard him as more of a product of Hearstism than of democracy. National questions have played no part in the contest. It may fairly be said that the predominating issues are the two candidates themselves.

Pennsylvania.

LEADING CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

Republican—Edwin S. Stuart.

Fusionist—Lewis Emery, Jr.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3.—With party lines asunder in every county the political situation in Pennsylvania on the eve of the election is in the most muddled condition seen here since civil war days. Scandals appear to be the chief issue of the campaign. The democrats and the Lincoln republicans, which last named party was given birth by the political reform movement that upset Philadelphia a year ago, have fused in an effort to rid the state of the so-called republican machine. The Fusion candidate is Lewis Emery, Jr. The ticket of the regular republicans is headed by Edwin S. Stuart. Charges and countercharges of graft and corruption have been the chief feature of the campaign. Charges of colossal graft in connection with the building of the new state capitol have sprung on the republicans. On the other hand, Emery, the Fusion candidate, has been embarrassed by his connection with the Pure Oil company, which has been shown to have a close corporation agreement with the Standard Oil company. The Fusionists have made a hard fight and the victory of their forces at the polls next Tuesday would not greatly surprise those best acquainted with the situation.

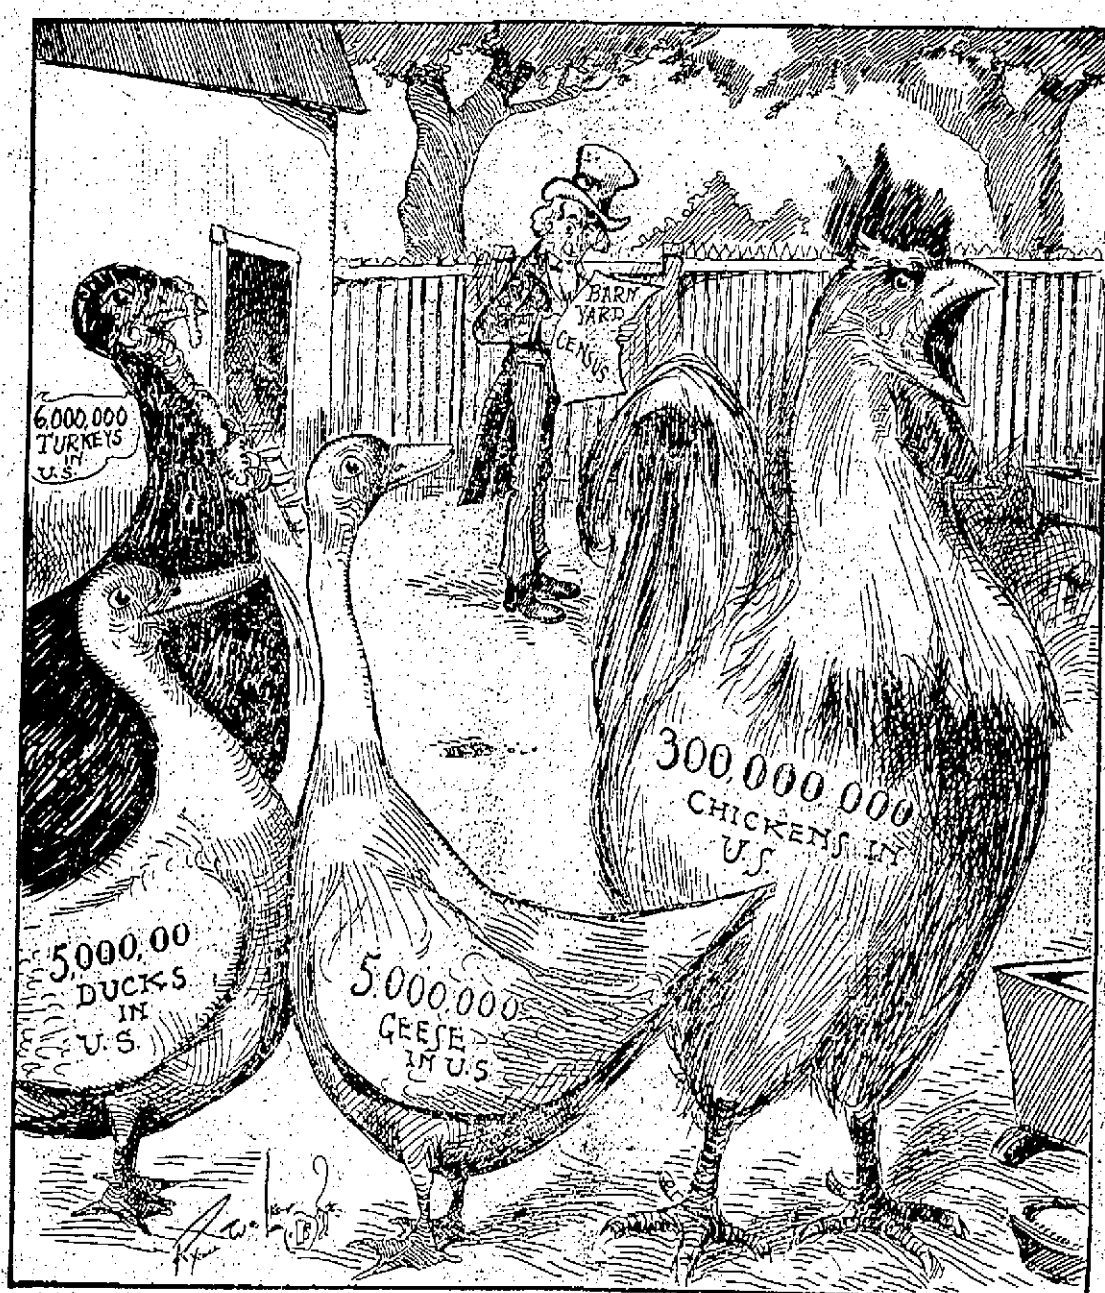

Kansas.

LEADING CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

Republican—Edward W. Hoch.

Democratic—William A. Harris.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 3.—The Kansas campaign closed today with the chances apparently favoring republican success. Edward W. Hoch, the present republican governor, is a candidate for re-election. His opponent on the democratic ticket is ex-Senator William A. Harris. The democrats have brought numerous charges against Hoch, of sympathy with corporations and of being under railroad influence. The chief object to Harris appears to be that he is virtually a non-resident of the state; his home and business interests having been Uncle Sam—I'll be gummed! I never knew what a big population I had in this line of inhabitants.

PANAMA REPUBLIC IS TWO YEARS OLD

Celebration Held in Principal Cities and Reception at Palace of President Amador.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Panama, Nov. 3.—Celebrations were begun today in honor of the second anniversary of the Republic of Panama. The celebration, which closed in Rhode Island today, the democratic ticket is headed by James H. Higgins, who, though but 29 years of age, has been four times elected mayor of Pawtucket. He has exposed corruption in his own towns and seeks to extend his efforts in this direction higher up. Governor George H. Utter is standing for another term on the republican ticket. While much attention has been paid as usual to local affairs, the principal fight is for the control of the next legislature, which is to elect a United States senator. Three millionaires are republicans are contesting for the senatorship.

Colorado.

LEADING CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

Republican—Henry A. Buchtel.

Democratic—Alva Adams.

Independent—Don E. Lindsey.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—The present campaign in Colorado is one of the most picturesque waged anywhere in the country this year. Corporation domination and other issues are to the fore. The democratic candidate for governor is Alva Adams, who has held the seat before. The republican candidate is Henry A. Buchtel, chancellor of the University of Denver. In addition to these two there is a third candidate in the field in the person of Judge Ben B. Lindsey, famous as the judge of the juvenile court. Judge Lindsey has pursued a vigorous campaign and he is undoubtedly a factor to be reckoned with in figuring on the result of Tuesday's election. The women of Colorado will poll a larger vote than ever before and it is within the range of possibilities that their votes will determine the result of the contest. Chief Justice Gabbert, republican, is a candidate for re-election. He has been charged with being under corporation influence, and his presence on the ticket is believed to weaken the chances of republican success.

TWENTY ROUNDS OR A FIGHT TO FINISH

Gans and Herman Sign Articles for Big Fight Next Year Day at Tonopah.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 3.—Joe Gans, the lightweight champion of the world, and "Kid" Herman, Chicago, today signed articles to fight twenty rounds or to a finish, as the club desires, on New Year's day before the Tonopah (Nev.) Athletic club. The purse is twenty thousand dollars, the winner to take sixty per cent and the loser forty per cent. The weight is 133 pounds two hours before the fight.

ANOTHER VESSEL IS ASHORE ON REEF

Merchant Steamer With Five Hundred and Fifty Emigrants Is Fast Ashore.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Honolulu, Nov. 3.—The merchant steamer Chiusa from Kobe, with 550 emigrants for this place, is ashore off the harbor. It is not believed the vessel is in danger.

Now it is shattered by an American. News from Commander Peary has been awaited with anxiety for several weeks, as July 16 was the date he had fixed for the end of the "dash" across the ice cap surrounding the pole. The commander, when he sailed from New York more than a year ago, fondly hoped that the end of the dash would carry him to the pole itself.

Peary Sends the News.

The news in a telegram to Herbert L. Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic club, of which Morris J. Jessup is president. It read:

Hopedale, Labrador (via Twillingate), New Foundland, Nov. 2.—Herbert L. Bridgman: The Roosevelt wintered on the north coast of Grant Land, a little north of Alert's winter quarters. Went north with sledges in February via Hecla and Columbia. Delayed by open water between 84 and 85 degrees. Beyond 85 six days. Gale disrupted ice, destroyed caches and cut off communication with supporting bodies, and drifted due east. Reached 87 degrees 6 minutes north latitude over ice, drifting steadily eastward. Returning, ate dogs.

Drifted eastward, delayed by open water, and reached north coast of Greenland in straitened conditions. Killed musk oxen and returned along Greenland coast to ship.

HUGHES CONFIDENT OF HIS ELECTION

Republican Candidate in New York State Believes That He Will Have Big Lead.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Nov. 3.—"I am growing more and more confident every hour that the people are with me in this fight," said Charles E. Hughes, the republican candidate for governor, as he started today on his speaking tour through Brooklyn and Manhattan Boroughs. Chairman Woodruff today reiterated the statement of yesterday in which he claimed the election was just about all over but for the shouting, and declared the conditions up the state were improving hourly.

JOSEF LHEVINNE TO COME DECEMBER 19

Great Russian Pianist Booked for Myers-Walker & Walker Date. Cancelled—Picture Stolen From Foyer.

Joseph Lhevinne, the great Russian pianist, has been booked to appear at the Myers-theatre Wednesday evening, Dec. 19. His debut in Baltimore was noticed in Thursday's dispatches to the Gazette. The Dec. 17 date for Williams & Walker, colored comedians, who were to appear in "Abyssinia," has been cancelled; the company having gone into the hands of a receiver, James D. Barton. Some time Monday evening, a framed picture of Al Wilson, the singing comedian, was stolen from the foyer of the local opera house. If such depredations are to continue, Manager Myers may be compelled to place all of his art gallery under lock and key.

Before The Footlights.

One often hears the remark: "You must go to New York or Chicago to see the original productions or else you hear quite a different thing under the same name." But such is not a fact with and does not apply to "The District Leader," which made its first appearance here at the Myers theatre this afternoon.

The chorus is not only large enough to fill any stage but the voices are the sort that take an open score and make the very best of all that is in it. "The District Leader" moves with a swing and a dash and when it is all

Remus Boreland and Hiram Grindle. Hezekiah Doo, the great politician in embryo, is called upon to ride the horse of the man whose campaign he is managing. Although unprepared, Hezekiah steps into the breach and wins the race. Hezekiah is a real hero and is rewarded by Cupid in gratifying himself into the heart of Paloma Boreland, the daughter of his client's rival for the mayoralty. Hezekiah has loved the girl in silence for many years, but only succeeded in winning her heart after he had done something worth while. The over you leave the theatre and expect to find the lights of Herald Square blazing in front and all around you, and everyone hurrying down Broadway for an after theatre supper. "The District Leader" is a New York production, produced at Wallack's theatre and this production in its entirety is what is promised local theatregoers. Every costume, every piece of scenery, every electrical effect and every property used in Wallack's was used here this afternoon when this attraction made its first appearance and will be used here again tonight. With out a dissenting voice first honors go to Miss Mabel Harrison, who accomplishes all that is possible for one woman to do with a spirit and charm of manner that wins her auditors from curtain rise to finale.

The secret of the great success of "The Black Politician," the latest offering of The Smart Set, the best and most popular colored aggregation of performers before the public, is due to the fact that it is a novelty. The piece could be appropriately termed a comedy drama. It is nothing more, without a decidedly suitable musical setting. It is interesting, has a plot that is plausible and logical and contains enough thrills, features, sensations and funny bits to please the most fastidious amusement seeker. The characterization is of the best and the songs of the kind sure to appeal to any ear. There is one particular scene in this sterling play that could carry any similar vehicle of frivolity to immediate triumph. It occurs in the second act and represents a county fair race track in full operation. Here we see bookmakers, attendants, routs, jockeys and spectators in action, less be sold for in addition to the all awaiting the result of the great election day handpan. On the success of the race depends the fortunes of the two rival candidates for mayor.

part of Hezekiah is in the hands of S. H. Dudley, a clever and versatile comedian who essays the role acceptably. The play fairly reeks with genuine fun, has a well defined plot, adding much additional attractiveness to its ludicrous situations and climaxes. Then there is a world of pretty music in it too—catchy songs well rendered, tuneful selections well played. The supporting company includes a chorus of thirty and the costumes are all that could be desired. This big attraction will be seen at the Myers theatre next Monday, Nov. 5, and despite its merit and magnitude there will be no advance in prices.

The Apollo Club concert on Tuesday night, November 13, at the Myers Grand Opera House, will doubtless be the fashionable musical event of many years. The eminent vocalists, brought here at great expense, are all of the highest professional rank and Mabel Tridgen has few equals as a soprano and John B. Williams is the noted New York tenor, who is to sing the tenor solos in the great production of "The Messiah" at the Auditorium in Chicago next Christmas, by the Thomas Orchestra and Chicago Apollo Club. William Beard is frankly admitted to be the best basso west of New York. Nan Louise Harrison, the contralto, has had less public experience than the others but is said to possess a voice wonderful in its richness and purity. Helen Gilmore ranks with the first as a composer of high class music. The stage decorations will be in charge of J. M. Bostwick & Sons, C. S. Putnam and the Janesville Floral Company. Every seat in the Opera House will doubtless be sold for in addition to the striking merit of the concert the members of the Apollo Club are social leaders and they and their friends will pack the house.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Saturday, November 3, 1866. Personal.—We received a pleasant call this evening from a postmaster, but for his fidelity to the cause of right and justice he lost his official head. Col. B. will remain in our city until after election.

Internal Revenue Appointments.—We learn that Mr. Alex. M. Russell of this city has received the appointment of inspector of high wines at Shopshire. Mr. R. is quite a young man, but he did most excellent service in the army being a member of the 12th Wisconsin battery. He lost his right arm at Savannah by the explosion of a rebel shell, and has therefore justly earned the right to this appointment. Mr. Platt Tyeleshtiner has received the appointment of cigar inspector for this county. We are sorry the major did not get a position worth five times as much.

Turning from the readiness with which the new assistant assessor, Jed. Haxelton, Esq., takes to the duties of his office, it is evident he has a natural turn for business. If we must have an officer of that stripe of politics Jed is about as good as any that could be selected.

Social Hop.—Those who have green cards with the right mark upon them will not forget Tuesday evening, November 6th, at the Myers House. Music by Williams & Severance Band of Whitewater.

burden-bearer, and the world has an army of this class of heroes.
Don't call them heartless and unfeeling because the evidences of grief are so unostentatious. It takes a brave soul to meet the world with a smile and a cheery word of good cheer when the heart is heavy with sorrow. Deep waters glide along without a ripple, while the noisy rapids of the shallow stream attract attention.
There is more than sentiment in the lines of the old hymn:
"Go bury thy sorrow, go hide it with care."
Go bury it deeply, the world has its share.
And the lesson which it teaches is not always easy to master, but the truth, so tersely expressed, is sublime and well worth absorbing.
The flowers, the smiles, the kind words and thoughtful deeds are needed for the city of the living. They contribute nothing to the dead, while they bring joy and comfort to a world sadly in need of love and human sympathy.
A prominent business man died in Chicago some months ago and as the long funeral cortege passed down the street it was noticed that the first three carriages were loaded down with flowers.
A little street arab with pinched face and tattered garments was in the crowd and catching sight of the roses, said: "Gee, look at de flowers; wish I had some of 'em for my mother."
The exclamation attracted the attention of a kind-hearted woman and placing her hand on the head of the lad she said: "What about your mother, my boy?"
The note of sympathy touched the child and looking up through tears that furrowed down his dirty cheeks he said in broken voice:
"Oh, she's sick, that's all, and she hasn't seen a flower since she came back from the fresh air home last summer, and she does love flowers so much."
He went home to the sick mother with a happy heart, for the bunch of roses and more substantial basket on his arm spoke of the friend who lived for the living, and whose loving sympathy brought joy and gladness to the humble cottage.
There is a world of fine sentiment about flowers. They are God's bright messengers, wrapped in mystery and unfolding in fragrance, under the magic touch of a divine hand.
They speak a language which no voice can imitate, and express love and sympathy for human suffering and sorrow, but they are for the living and not for the dead.
"Twere better to send a cheap bouquet To a living friend this very day, Than a bushel of roses, white and red, To lay on his casket when he is dead."
The nation as well as the individual recognizes this sentiment. It has but little money to invest in monuments for her great men, but a tidal wave or an earthquake loosens the purse strings and Galveston and San Francisco share in practical sympathy.
The tombs of Lincoln, of Grant, of Garfield and McKinley are sacred shrines; where thought reverts with grateful reverence, but the nation is stirred to action by living issues.
There is one sepulchre, however, which is just now attracting universal attention, because the tragedy connected with it is again made vivid.
When Secretary Root, speaking for President Roosevelt, stood before a vast audience at Utica the other night and declared that William Randolph Hearst is not guilty of the assassination of William McKinley, the startling statement called back the history of the crime, and when the speaker sustained the charge by reading from Hearst's New York paper articles written to incite the foul deed, the sentence of guilty was the verdict of public opinion, and as the news flashed over the land this sentence was sustained by the American people.
This is the first time in the history of the country when a candidate for high office has been confronted with a ghost from the tomb. Live men and living issues absorb attention, but Hearst and Hearstism is a menace to the nation.
The seeds of anarchy sowed in the mind of Czolgosz incited murder and the voice of a martyred president, pleading for the misguided victim, comes out of the past like a living voice, and the people will arise in their might and avenge the blood of the martyr.
This will accomplish nothing for the dead president, but it will accomplish much for the nation which he loved and served so well.
Life is a drama combining pathos and tragedy with rapidly changing scenes. The players belong to the great brotherhood of humanity. Some of them are weak, others are needy, but all are alive and intensely human. Life is at its best when every man fills his niche faithfully and lends a hand.
Senator Spooner has made votes for the party and friends for himself all over the state. The commonwealth has occasion to be proud of its senior senator.
Senator La Follette found an audience in Milwaukee that responded with a hiss when he referred to Senator Spooner. The junior senator must feel flattered in addressing that sort of a rabble.
The American people have not forgotten President McKinley, nor the campaign of defamation conducted against him by William Randolph Hearst. The chickens are coming home to roost.
La Follette is out after Connor, and the merry fight goes on. The people in the meantime are doing some sober thinking and the verdict they are preparing to render will not be very flattering to the erratic senator.

Secretary Root has thrown a boom-erang into the Hearst campaign and the yellow journalist will continue in the ranks of private citizens.

PRESS COMMENT.
The Republican's Duty
Fond du Lac Commonwealth: Vote it straight, from Governor Davidson down to the last county nomination.

Thus Avoiding Side Discussions
Chicago Tribune: By exercising a little care Mr. Roosevelt can write an acceptable state paper without using any of the 300 reformed words.

More Womanly Than Ever
London Opinion: Women are more womanly today than they were. Their dress bills are twice as heavy, their vanity twice as insatiable, their personality twice as irresistible, their youth twice as elastic.

Bryan's Latest Blunder
Chicago Inter Ocean: Mr. Bryan has committed another blunder by saying that the Sullivan should be invited to step out of the Democratic party. This is as bad almost as it would be to say that all the Johnsons should be invited to step out of the city directory.

Snapping At Hand That Feeds.
Madison Democrat: And now that the switch-tenders have formed a union to coerce employers. Since most of them are cripples and to some extent kept on the payroll as an act of charity their action has about the same appearance as would the organization of war pensioners.

A Theatrical Flourish.
Madison Journal: No actor newspaper privilege is the lot of the interstate-commerce commission. You ought to be in the business to know that this is a sound benefit to every self-respecting newspaper. The State Journal will rejoice when this edict is put into force.

A Sartorial Crime
Milwaukee Sentinel: From Chicago comes a most distressing story which reveals the duplicity of dress-makers in glaring colors.
It appears that Mrs. Reggie Vahderbilt of New York and Mrs. Stanley Field of Chicago both patronize the same Parisian modiste. Both appealed to this personage last summer for a dream of a frock, and the astute constructor of sartorial confections, knowing that they lived 1,000 miles apart, duplicated the gowns.
And then, dreadful to relate, both society leaders, each wearing her lovely Paris gown, attended the Chicago horse show and sat within a few seats of each other. Can anyone imagine a situation more dreadful?

But to the everlasting credit of both the betrayed ones, they did not make a scene. Persons of coarser fiber might have said nasty things concerning each other. Women of a lower order of humanity might have glared, balefully at the rival wearer of the Paris gown and so in some circles it is quite possible that open reprobation and perhaps physical violence might have resulted.

But the patrician blood of each stood the test nobly, and regardless of the heart burning jealousy that assailed any true woman in the circumstances, they sat and viewed the horse show, commented on the beautiful animals, discussed the latest monkey dinner and the prospective swimming pool party and in every way conducted themselves with a heroism before which the bravery of Joan of Arc or the noble fortitude of Mary Queen of Scots, paled into insignificance.

How Lincoln Won His Case.
The lawyer whose honesty is proved has the confidence of the judge and jury. A story of Abraham Lincoln is an illustration: he was appointed to defend one charged with murder. The crime was a brutal one; the evidence entirely circumstantial; the accused a stranger. Feeling was high and against the friendless defendant. On the trial Lincoln drew from the witnesses full statements of what they saw and knew. There was no effort to confuse, no attempt to place before the jury the facts other than they were. In the argument, after calling attention to the fact that there was no direct testimony, Lincoln reviewed the circumstances, and after conceding that this and that seemed to point to the defendant's guilt, closed by saying that he had reflected much on the case, and while it seemed probable that defendant was guilty, he was not sure, and asking the jury straight in the face said, "Are you?" The defendant was acquitted, and afterwards the real criminal was detected and punished. How different would have been the conduct of many lawyers! Some would have striven to lead the judge into technical errors with a view to an appeal to a higher court. Others would have become hoarse in denunciation of witnesses, decrying the lack of positive testimony and the marvelous virtue of a reasonable doubt. The simple, straightforward way of Lincoln, backed by the confidence of the jury, won.—D. J. Brewer, in the November Atlantic.

Wisconsin Rail Rates on Beets.
The matter of the complaint of the Wisconsin sugar makers against the existing rates on sugar beets, says the Beet Sugar Gazette, is developing into a contest of great earnestness. The railroads are resisting the demands of the growers and factory men and the hearing on the subject is producing a great volume of evidence on both sides.
The Chippewa Sugar Company of Chippewa Falls, the Rock County Sugar Company of Janesville and the Wisconsin Sugar Company of Menomonie Falls are joining in the complaint demanding lower rates on moved facilities and conveniences. One demand is that the minimum of a car of sugar beets be reduced from 30,000 pounds to 24,000 pounds. This will operate to reduce the rate, and will also be more convenient for the farmers in loading. It is also demanded that the sugar beet cars be equipped with improved chutes, to make unloading easier and cheaper, but the complainants maintain that this would not only be a benefit to them but also to the railroads, in that it would multiply the efficiency of a car. They declare that by providing the cars with this improvement, twice the movement can be obtained from it and the delays now experienced will be eliminated.

This is perhaps the hardest fight that has been made on any rate proposition. The sugar men in Wisconsin at the present time pay at the rate of 20 cents per ton on a haul of 25 miles or less and contend that with the Michigan and Nebraska rate of 40 cents and the Colorado rate of 30 cents the Wisconsin rate should be lower. The railroad argued that if the sugar beet men had the rate of Michigan or less and the Colorado rate or more, the Michigan rate of the manufactured product on the sugar sent to the nearest markets. The Michigan factories pay 13 cents per 100 pounds. In Wisconsin the Janesville company pays 8 cents, the Menomonie Falls company 5 cents and the Chippewa Falls company 7 1/2 cents.
The Milwaukee road claimed the proposition was strictly a commodity rate on shipments of the raw material with the haul out of the manufactured products and in view of the fact that the rate on sugar was so much lower than in Michigan, Nevada and Colorado, the fact that the rate on beets and beet pulp was high made the whole proposition average. It said if Wisconsin got the 40-cent rate like Michigan the Michigan rate on sugar of 13 cents would have to be maintained.

SQUAW APPARENTLY WAS DESERTED HERE
Mrs. Mary Bluing Slept on the Floor at the Police Station Last Night—Sobbed for Paposes This Morning.
Mary Bluing, a rather young appearing Indian squaw, who was left at the police station last night by an elderly white man whom she calls Tom, sobbed and wept in the women's apartment cell in the lock-up this morning, murmuring incoherent words about five paposes, the city of Tomah and the failure of the white man to reappear. Just what the aged pale-face was up to the police are unable to surmise. He appeared with the squaw at the station last night, representing that he had been unable to find accommodations for her in any hotel and asking that she be sheltered until morning. Once the officers had agreed to allow her to remain he made his exit and has not since been seen. That Mrs. Bluing was not accustomed to hotel life was evidenced by the fact that she ignored the comfortable cot and slept on the hard cement floor. She was garbed in customary blanket or shawl of many jewelry. He feet, however, were protected by shoes instead of moccasins. Whether or not she belongs to the Winnebago tribe is a question, as she was plainly bewildered by most of the questions asked her. If the man Tom fails to appear the police will put her on a train bound for Tomah sometime today.

ALL CROPS ARE IN THE BEST OF SHAPE
Secretary True Publishes His Last Report for the Present Year Showing Prosperity.
All Wisconsin crops boomed during the past season, according to the final report of John M. True, secretary of the state board of agriculture. He completed his compilation of reports from all over the state, showing yield, quality and prices of products of Wisconsin farms for the past season, and the result is exceedingly gratifying.
The report is as follows:
Final Report of Year
"Our final crop report for this season aims to give the average yield, per acre of the principal farm crops grown in Wisconsin, the quality of the same upon a basis of 100, representing a very high average for a term of years—and the average price of the same on the home market.
"Yields have been uniformly good, as generally favorable crop conditions have prevailed throughout the state during the entire season. The yield of small grains was somewhat diminished in the southern section during the early summer and higher averages are received from the central and northern sections.
Bumper Corn Crop
"The corn crop of the state is the best for a long term of years, the crop being fully matured even in those parts of the state where it has not been considered safe to attempt to cultivate it. Our figures relative to this crop look large, but we are satisfied that they are not overdrawn.
"The potato crop matured in fine form. There is little complaint of blight or rot, though in most localities considerable damage was reported from grub worms. Nevertheless the crop would have been very large and fine but for the severe frost early in October.
Potato Prices Unsettled
"It is estimated that hardly one-third of the crop had been secured at that time, and from one-third to one-half of the tubers then in the ground were destroyed. In addition to the loss of crop, the liability to mix frosted potatoes with sound ones has added immensely to the work of preparing crop for market and has unsettled prices for the time.
"Aside from losses by frost, the crop remains larger than that of last year and is of a better quality, and prices will doubtless advance for clean, well assorted stock.
"The yield of clover seed is light and the quality rather inferior. Many parts of the state where the crop has usually been important a failure is now reported.
Good Sugar Beet Yield
"Sugar beets have made a good yield and are being marketed at good prices.
"The tobacco crop was heavy and was well secured. Prices are very satisfactory.
"On many of the products herein classified local prices vary in a considerable extent, especially where crops, like potatoes, are difficult of transportation, but as a whole prices compare favorably with those of last season, while yields are generally more satisfactory.
Report of All Crops
"We give the following table from the reports of correspondents:

Wheat	per acre	Quality	Price
Barley	33	92	40
Oats	39	92	28
Buckwheat	17	90	65
Corn	42	98	40
Flax seed	14	90	1.04

A STRONG ENDORSEMENT

FOR JOHN L. FISHER

Candidate for Re-election to the Office of District Attorney.

Janesville, Wis., Oct. 31, 1906.

Mr. John L. Fisher, District Attorney, City.
Dear Sir: Referring to your request for a candid statement of my opinion as to the way you have attended to the duties of the District Attorney's office since your appointment, I desire to say that I have at all times refused to take sides or enter into any contest between candidates for the office and still do so, but I think you are entitled to the statement that, since your appointment, in my judgment, you have devoted your best energies to the office and have performed its duties in a careful and satisfactory manner.
Respectfully yours,
CHARLES L. FIFIELD,
Municipal Judge.

Janesville, Wis., Oct. 31, 1906.
We, the undersigned, members of the Bar of Rock county, do hereby state that we are familiar with the duties of the office of District Attorney, for Rock County, and that the present incumbent, John L. Fisher, has since his appointment, on February 1st, 1906, performed the duties of the office in an able, successful, and efficient manner; that since his appointment, a Municipal Court has been organized for the City of Beloit, and on the whole, there has been a great deal of business to be attended to, to which he has given nearly all his time and his very best efforts; and we feel that his record entitles him to an election to this important office.

The ECLIPSE Bread Maker

does more than mix the dough; it actually kneads it by compression. It's the only bread maker in the world that does this. With an "Eclipse" from one to eight loaves of good, light, wholesome bread can be made in three minutes, without the hands touching the dough. Think of the time and labor saved! Then it will pay for itself in a few bakings.
The "Eclipse" makes the best bread. It's the easiest to operate; simplest in construction, and will not get out of order.

"Not $10--Just $5 a Tooth"

You paid $10 each for your gold crowns. Didn't you?
Well, you need not do it in the future.
If you will choose Dr. Richards for your dentist.
He is placing hundreds of the finest gold crowns possible to be made for just $5 each.
You ask, "How can he do it?"
Because he is satisfied with a smaller margin of profit.
He guarantees these crowns to be the equal of any in quality of gold, in beauty of design, in fit and general usefulness.
Now who would be so foolish as to part with a tooth when for $5.00 it can be saved for possibly 25 years of good hard serviceableness?
Dr. Richards can show you crowns set by him 15 years ago, which are as good as ever today.
Can you ask more than that?
And his price isn't $10.
It's just $5 each.

Third ballot—total vote, 305: Thomas Gentle, 188; A. A. Thompson, 76; F. E. Converse, 41; necessary for election, 153.

Thomas Gentle of Platteville was declared elected. The other officers were elected by acclamation, the nominating committee reporting as follows:

Member of executive committee, term to expire in 1909—Eupt. Julia R. Roedel, Waukesha.

First Vice-President—A. A. Thompson, Richland Center.

Second Vice-President—Miss Susan Porter, Racine.

Secretary—K. L. Hatch, Waterloo.

Treasurer—John Arbuthnot, Janesville.

Railroad manager—S. Mills Thomas, Lodi.

Reporter—C. B. Patzer, Milwaukee.

Resolutions Adopted.

Resolutions were also adopted today. In substance they were as follows:

To request the State Teachers' Association to hold their conventions in the fall instead of during the holidays, but not making the change until 1908; to ask the legislative committee of the state association to seek the passage of a minimum salary law in Wisconsin, similar to those enacted in other states; to do all in the power of the membership to create a love for the beautiful and to express approval of the work being done by the commission appointed by the governor to make a state park at Devils Lake; to thank the people of Janesville and the school authorities for their hospitality, the trustees of the Congregational church and the city authorities for the use of the building in which the convention sessions were held, the high school pupils and the members of the orchestra from the institute for the blind, those who took part in the program and H. C. Buell and his local committee; to petition the legislative committee of the state association to do all in their power for the modification of laws so that the county superintendents will be relieved of some of their clerical work and be given more time to inspect and visit their schools, although the rural schools were never in a better condition.

Another resolution accepted was that admission to all meetings of the conventions next year, except those declared open by the president, be granted by badge only. The purpose of this is to collect dues from all teachers present. Such a move was shown to be necessary by the fact up till noon but $274 was taken in by the treasurer toward paying the expenses of the convention. $67 was turned over from last year's convention, making a total on hand of $341.

Speakers Today.

Several excellent addresses were given today. This afternoon D. D. Mayne, former superintendent of schools here and now principal of the agricultural academy of Minnesota university at St. Anthony Falls, spoke on agriculture in the common schools.

Many Janesville people besides the teachers heard him. Ex-State Supt. L. D. Harvey of Menominee spoke on "Some things the child should get from school." Prof. M. V. O'Shea of the university on "Education for Efficiency." State Supt. C. P. Cary on "The grade teachers' opportunity," and Dr. Herbert L. Willett of Chicago university on "The youth of the twentieth century."

At Bee Sugar Factory.

Manager M. R. Osburn of the Rock County Sugar company invited the teachers to visit and inspect the factory if they wished and two hundred or more embraced the opportunity to see how sugar was manufactured.

Next Meeting Place.

The place of meeting next year will be selected by the executive committee at the State Convention in Milwaukee during the holidays.

EARL R. DRAKE CO.

Open's Lecture Course at the Methodist Church Monday Evening.

No lover of music should fail to hear The Earl R. Drake Co. which appears at the M. E. church, Monday night, opening the lecture course. Mr. Drake, the violinist, never fails to delight his hearers as he not only plays classical but the popular music as well. His violin, a real Stradivarius, one of the three dated 1713, cost him $5,000. Prof. Willett, the baritone with him, is fully as great an artist, having studied in Vienna, Berlin, London and New York. He sang one year as soloist with the great Innis Band and now receives $6 per hour as head of the Columbia Conservatory of Music in Chicago. Miss Hansch, the German flutist, is also a solo artist and one of the best in this country. Miss Blood is a viola soloist, a rare accomplishment. Her instrument is over 200 years old and valued at more than $1,000. Miss Blood and Prof. Drake are also excellent pianists, the latter having played for Joachim and his pupils while studying in Berlin. Not only are they all soloists but their concerted work is very fine.

CANDIDATE AYLWARD TO DISCUSS ISSUES

Democratic Nominee for Governor to Speak Here This Evening on Platform.

John Aylward, of Madison, the democratic candidate for Governor, is registered at the Myers Hotel. This evening he speaks at the City Hall at eight o'clock on the campaign issues.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE JOHN AYLWARD

Mr. Aylward is a strong, forceful orator and his campaign talks this year have been a revelation to the oldtime democratic politicians. Mr. Aylward spoke last night in Green Bay to a large and enthusiastic audience. He saw Senator Spooner this morning on his way to Janesville, and when seen this noon at the Hotel.

Mr. Aylward spoke of the great strength that Senator Spooner has shown in this campaign and characterized him as the greatest man in the state today. This, coming from a democratic candidate for gubernatorial honors, is the highest compliment that can be paid to Senator Spooner. Mr. Aylward makes no prediction of his election, but says from a democratic standpoint his campaign has progressed very nicely. Several of the teachers in attendance at the convention expressed a desire to meet him and his table in the dining room resembled an informal reception for a few minutes this noon. This afternoon Mr. Aylward is holding a conference with J. J. Cunningham, P. J. Monat and other democratic leaders. His speech this evening will be interesting and he will doubtless be greeted by a large audience.

there a delicious three-course supper was served at 12:30.

Miss Mina Wilson and Miss Zimmerman, teachers in the high school at New Glarus, are guests of Mrs. Thos. James at 14 Chatham street during the teachers' convention.

Miss Genevieve Decker, former member of the Janesville high school faculty and now teaching in Milwaukee, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

Mrs. E. C. Stetson of Chicago, the gifted portrait painter, is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. C. Burdick, No. 10 South Franklin street.

The Misses Gertrude Leona and Goldie Cole of Boyden, La., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. E. I. Burdick.

The Misses Elizabeth Graham and Josephine McDermott of Madison were the guests of Miss Maude Green yesterday.

Miss Beulah Brown, a graduate of the local high school in 1905, is here from Fulton for the teachers' convention.

Mrs. Fred A. Capelle and Miss Capelle entertained at luncheon this noon.

Mrs. P. A. Neal of Chicago is the guest of her brother, William Pomerooy, on West Pleasant street.

Mrs. L. F. Patten returned to Chicago today after a short visit with Mrs. E. M. St. John, 252 South Third street.

Mrs. August Buggs.

ALARMING INROADS OF TUBERCULOSIS

FUTILE EFFORTS OF NAVAL SURGEONS TO CHECK IT.

GUAM HAS ODD DISEASE

Admiral Rixey Reports Painful and Repulsive Affliction, Which Destroyed the Nose and Upper Part of Face.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Tuberculosis has made alarming inroads upon the personnel of the navy and marine corps in spite of the measures taken by medical officers to check the disease. The annual report of Rear Admiral Rixey, surgeon general of the navy, shows that in 1905 the number of tuberculosis cases in the service was 243, or 0.1 for every 1,000 men. In 1895 the ratio was only 3.2 to every 1,000. Practically all the cases are pulmonary tuberculosis.

The deck force, mess attendants and cooks were most affected by the disease and the machinery force came next. More careful examination of recruits is urged by Admiral Rixey, who also suggests that greater care must be taken in isolating tuberculosis cases. He suggests that men whose work keeps them below decks should be required to take exercise on deck regularly.

Malaria in Canal Zone.

Admiral Rixey's report shows that the marines who went to the canal zone on the Columbia and were quartered there from May to July of this year were great sufferers from malaria. The ship returned to Boston on July 21 and between July 13 and the time of the arrival at Boston 215 of the 298 officers and men suffered acute malarial prostrations. The return to northern climate banished the malarial rapidly and no cases proved fatal. Most of the men were bitten by mosquitoes while encamped at Camp Reed, near Corozal.

Peculiar Disease in Guam.

An infectious, painful and repulsive disease is reported by Admiral Rixey as being prevalent in the island of Guam. Naval surgeons are studying and treating the disease which has so far been confined to natives. Rhinopharyngitis mutilans is the name given to the disease, which is a sort of ulceration that destroys the nose and upper part of the face. At present there are about 200 cases on the island.

A corps of dental surgeons and a nurse corps of trained women nurses are innovations in the service recommended by Admiral Rixey.

Estimates Work on Canal. Washington, Nov. 3.—Some idea of the vastness of the Panama canal project is conveyed in a circular issued by the commission Friday for the information of prospective bidders for constructing the canal. It is stated that the quantities of material to be removed and to be applied to the work of construction are only approximate and even the location and character of structure may be changed. It is hoped, however, that exact information will be collected by the committee of five engineers who are charged to estimate a reasonable cost and time for completing the canal.

The circular states under separate heads the character of the work to be done. The amount of excavation is staggering in extent. The summary shows that the estimated excavation and structural material in these sections are approximately as follows:

Colon section, 9,455,000 cubic yards; Mindi, 11,000,000 yards; Gatun locks, excavation, 3,660,000 yards; concrete, 1,302,750 yards; steel gates, 29,230,000 pounds; Gatun dam, earth-filled, 21,200,000 yards; Gatun regulating works, excavation, 1,580,000 yards; concrete, 189,000 yards; sluices, 5,000,000 pounds; lake section, excavation, 24,000,000 yards; Culebra excavation, 39,000,000 yards; Pedro Miguel excavation, 6,335,000 yards; Pedro Miguel lock excavation, 1,170,000 yards; embankment, 1,100,000 yards; back fill, 390,000 yards; concrete, 513,612 yards; cast iron, 732,000 pounds; steel gates, 19,500,000 pounds; Lake Soa section excavation, 1,690,000 yards; Soa locks excavation, 1,480,000 yards; back fill, 950,000 yards; concrete, 992,800 yards; cut stone, 690,000 yards; brick, 14,000 yards; cast iron, 1,231,000 pounds; steel gates, 37,150,000 pounds; La Boca dam, 6,300,000 yards; Corozal-Sosa dam, 5,397,000 yards; Panama Bay excavation, 8,528,000 yards.

THE ROYAL FAMILY ATTENDING WEDDING

May Cavendish Bentinck of London, Bride of John Ford of Legation at Copenhagen

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] London, Nov. 3.—Miss May Cavendish Bentinck, daughter of Mrs. George Cavendish Bentinck, was married to John Ford, First Secretary of the British legation at Copenhagen, in the Chapel Royal today. The semi-public marriage attracted great popular interest, attended as it was by members of the royal family and a host of other notables. The bride wore a white satin dress in empire style, with full court train. Among her bridesmaids were the Misses Mills, Gladys Vanderbilt and Jean Reid. It is said the wedding presents represent an outlay of fully a quarter of a million dollars.

The bride is very pretty, clever, well educated, and a particularly charming type of the Anglo-American girl. She is a niece of Mrs. Ogden Mills of New York, who is a twin sister of her mother. Her father is head of the collateral branch of the duval house, of Portland. John Ford, the bridegroom, is a son of the late Sir Francis Clare Ford, who died while British Ambassador at Rome.

Viable Supply of Cotton.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's supply of cotton shows a total of 2,280,281 bales against 3,000,293 last week. Of this the total of American cotton is 2,522,261, against 2,250,293 last week.

Armor Plate from America.

Rome, Nov. 3.—The order for 2,100 tons of armor plate, valued at $1,000,000 for an Italian man-of-war, which was given to the Midvale Steel company, of Pennsylvania, has been approved by the council of state.

Floods in Italy.

Rome, Nov. 3.—Heavy storms throughout Italy have caused floods in various parts of the peninsula. There is over a foot of water on St. Mark's square in Venice. Many roads are obstructed by landslides.

Pioneer River Man Dead.

Cincinnati, Nov. 3.—Capt. John Joseph Kennedy, aged 84, a pioneer river engineer, known among river men from Pittsburgh to the Gulf, died at his home in this city Friday.

To Depose Cannibal King.

Paris, Nov. 3.—M. Millies-Lacroix, minister of the colonies, has decided to summon the Annam state council and depose King Thann-Thai.

The death is announced of Lieut. Gen. Ivan Georgievitch Macdonald, of the Russian army, at Warsaw. "The deceased," remarks the Novoe Vremya, "belonged to a Scotch family, which may explain his tireless energy, enterprise and love of work."

MACHINISTS' STRIKE ENDED

CIVIC FEDERATION BRINGS ABOUT SETTLEMENT.

Southern Railway Trouble Amicably Adjusted at Meeting Between Officials and Workmen.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The strike of machinists on the Southern railway which was inaugurated recently for an increase in wages was settled Friday.

An amicable adjustment has been reached with the committee of machinists, under which the strike was declared off and the men now on strike will return to their old positions without prejudice on account of strike.

The men who remained with the company are to continue at work. Those who have been employed since the strike will be retired from the shops but without prejudice as to their continued employment by the company in other places, or as to their future employment in the shops if needed. Special instructions will be issued as to how to proceed with these new employees.

The wages offered by the company to the machinists prior to the strike are to apply from November 5, and the company's proposition to arbitrate the difference between that scale and the demand of uniform apprentices has been accepted and the arbitration will be arranged for under the plan and base suggested by the company as promptly as practicable.

This adjustment took place at a conference in New York November 2 between Hon. Seth Low, chairman of the National Civic Federation, the officers of the Southern railway company, the president of the International Association of Machinists and the local committee of Southern Railway Machinists.

A STOVE WITH AN HONORABLE RECORD

Over 30 years we've sold them, and not one complaint have we heard. The stoves must be giving satisfaction or we would have heard from them. The average furnace consumes from 12 to 18 tons of coal in a season. The first-class Favorite Base Burner needs but from 2½ to 4 tons of coal a season. With this 3 or 4 rooms with hall will be heated uniformly, irrespective of sudden drops in the temperature out doors. The heat ascending from the lower hall will remove the chill from apartments upstairs dispensing with the need of additional stoves. The magazine requires filling but once a day at the most. One raking will do until the morrow. The absence of dust and ashes shortens the labors of the house-keeper, and makes her a Favorite enthusiast from the beginning.
